"The reason I'm painting this way is that I want to be a machine and I feel that whatever I do and do machine-like is what I want to do."
– Andy Warhol

"My thoughts are lesions in my brain. My brain is a scar. I want to be a machine."
– Heiner Muller

"I want to be more warholian, I want to be machine-like, I want to take text that have already been written and simply rewrite them and transcribe them without changing anything--claim them as my own simply by the act of retyping say a day's copy of the New York Times. So that becomes my own and simply republishing it as that."
– Kenneth Goldsmith

"The reason I'm writing this way is that I want to be a machine and I feel that whatever I do and do machine-like is what I want to do. My thoughts are lesions in my brain. My brain is a scar. I want to be a machine. I want to be more warholian, I want to be machine-like, I want to take text that have already been written and simply rewrite them and transcribe them without changing anything--claim them as my own simply by the act of retyping say 8 hours of tweets made during a MoMA screening of Warhol's 'Empire.' So that becomes my own and simply republishing it as that."
